About our Audio CDs

Audio CDs include a complete audio recording on compact disk (CD) of the presentation listed above, as well as a printed copy of the conference handout. The audio recording is typically provided in an mp3 file. The CD plays on most modern stereo systems and computers. It does not include computer audio software, which is installed on most newer computer systems.

Supply

The Section keeps a limited supply of many products in inventory. If you are planning to order large quantities of any item (10 or more), please call first to check on availability.

REFER TO THE SECTION STORE ON OUR WEBSITE FOR DETAILS ON SECTION MERCHANDISE.
